Re: In Re: Terrorist Attacks on September 11, 2001, 03 MDL 1570 (GBD) (SN)

Dear Judge Netburn:

The Plaintiffs' Executive Committees ("PECs") write in response to the Court's April 15, 2021 email to the PECs and the Defendants' Executive Committee ("DEC") enclosing a letter that the Court received from Zacarias Moussaoui who is an al Qaeda prisoner at Supermax prison in Colorado. The PECs sent a Touhy letter and subpoena to the Bureau of Prisons for more information and the U.S. Attorney's Office in Colorado sent us the attached response. The government ("DOJ") asked the PECs to provide information regarding how the letter was sent, who it was addressed to, and the date it was received. Subsequently, DOJ informed the PECs and Court that it no longer needed the information and was satisfied concerning the prisoner security issues concerning Zacarias Moussaoui and the letter he purportedly wrote. Nonetheless, the PECs would still like to receive the information from the Court on how the letter that the Court sent to the PECs on April 15 was delivered to the Court and when it was received.

Respectfully submitted,

COZEN O'CONNOR
